NOTIFICATIONS.

Fort St. George, September 19, 1923
(G.O. Press No 1574, Development).

No 283.—The following draft of certain amendments to the Madras Factories (Amended) Rules, 1923, published in Notification No 210, dated 28th August 1923, printed at pages 982 to 1007 of Part I of the Fort St. George Gazette dated 11th September 1923, which the Governor in Council proposes to make under clause (i) of sub-section 2 of section 37 of the Indian Factories Act, 1911 (Act XII of 1911), as subsequently amended, read with section 21 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (Act X of 1897), is hereby published as required by sub-section (1) of section 39 of the Indian Factories Act for general information. Under sub-section (2) of section 39 of the said Act, notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 10th January 1924. Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date aforesaid will be considered by the Governor in Council. Objections and suggestions should be sent to Government through the Commissioner of Labour.

DRAFT AMENDMENTS.

1. Clause (e) of rule 2 of the said rules shall be omitted.

2. For rule 36 of the said rules, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"36. The following parts of machinery shall be securely fenced or protected if in motion and within reach:—

All shafts, whether vertical or horizontal, wheels (including balancing and momentum wheels) besides the parts mentioned in section 18 (1) (a) and (b), drums or pulleys (including fast and loose pulleys), couplings, collars, clutches, toothed wheels, straps, whether horizontal, inclined or vertical, bands, belts, chains, ropes and wires, or other devices by which any machine or appliance receives its motion. Also all projecting set screws, keys, nuts or bolts on revolving parts of machinery."

Explanation.—The fences and other devices for protection shall be so constructed and designed as to render it impossible for any person to pass between them and a moving part and also in such a manner as to give protection to a person oiling, cleaning or otherwise attending to machinery and to all persons who may be in the neighbourhood of a moving part while it is in motion.

Exception.—Where in any case any of the parts mentioned in this rule are not, in the opinion of the Inspector of Factories, a source of danger to any person employed in the factory, he shall, at the request of the occupier or manager of the factory, give such occupier or manager a certificate in writing clearly specifying the parts which are not a source of such danger. This rule shall not apply in respect of any parts specified in such certificate.

3. In rules 48 and 50 of the said rules and in sections 23 and 32 of Form N annexed to the said rules, the word "transmission" shall be omitted.

No. 290.—The following resolution of the Government of India is republished:—

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

TARIFF.

Simla, the 12*th September* 1923.

No. 141-T (48).—On the representation of a number of companies engaged in the production of petroleum in India asking for protection against the serious injury inflicted on them by the kerosene price war then in progress between the Standard Oil Company of New York and the Royal Dutch-Shell Group, the Tariff Board was directed to investigate the question of safeguarding the oil industry in India from injury inflicted by the sale of imported kerosene at prices below world parity. The report of the Board has been received and has been published for general information to-day.

2. The majority of the Board finds that the sale of imported kerosene at prices below world parity has been established, but the President in his minority report dissents from this finding. The Government of India recognise that the determination of world parity in respect of kerosene prices presents difficulties and that various views may be taken. But after careful examination of the evidence taken by the Board, they consider that the following points have been established:—

(1) The average price realised by the Standard Oil Company for all kerosene imported by it into India between September 1927 and March 1923 was Rs. 4-15-2 per unit, and this price was above world parity, whatever criterion is adopted to determine its level. The Standard Oil Company imports only superior kerosene.

(2) There is no evidence that the Standard Oil Company took the initiative anywhere in India in cutting prices or did more than follow, to an extent which varied in different localities, the cuts made by the Burmah Shell Company, which is the selling agency of the Asiatic Petroleum Company (representing the Royal Dutch-Shell Group) and of the companies in India which were members of the Kerosene Pool, and also of the Anglo-Persian Oil Company.

(3) The average price realised by the Asiatic Petroleum Company for superior kerosene imported by it into India during the same period was Rupees 3-13-8 per unit. This price was lower, by more than one rupee per unit, than the average price realised by the Standard Oil Company, and was below world parity whatever criterion is adopted, unless the very low prices said to have been paid by the Standard Oil Company for Russian kerosene is taken as the basis.

(4) It follows that the only company that could be considered to have sold imported kerosene at prices below world parity was the company which was working in closest alliance with the principal producer in India, and not the company against which the application for protection was originally directed.

3. Both the majority and minority reports comment on the failure of the applicant companies who were members of the Kerosene Pool to disclose in their representation to the Government of India the important fact that the Royal Dutch-Shell Group had recognised their claim to compensation for losses suffered as a result of the price war. It appears that this question was discussed at the beginning of the struggle, and an agreement on the subject was apparently reached prior to the date on which the Government of India made the reference to the Tariff Board. But this important fact, although it was material to the issue whether there was a prima facie case for an enquiry or not, was not brought to the notice of the Government of India at any time. It is imperative that a complete statement of the relevant facts within their knowledge should be made by applicants for protection, and the case for protection may be irretrievably damaged if it is subsequently found that essential facts have been withheld.

4. By a subsequent agreement, which was disclosed at the end of the enquiry, the Burmah Oil Company undertook to make good to the other Indian members of the Pool the remainder of their losses as measured by the difference between Indian and Chinese prices. In face of these agreements, it would have been impossible for the Government of India to consider the grant of public assistance to the companies which are members of the Pool. If, however, the price war had not come to an end, it would have been necessary to examine the question whether any steps should be taken on national grounds to safeguard the two companies which were not members of the Pool, that is, the Indo-Burma Petroleum Company and the Attock Oil Company. The price war having ended, it is unnecessary for the Government of India to arrive at any conclusion on this point, but they see no reason for rejecting the considered opinion of the Board that no case was made out for safeguarding any company against the sale of imported kerosene below world parity.

5. The Government of India accept the finding of the Board that petrol is not likely to be imported into India on any considerable scale for the next two years, and that no action is called for.

"Suit" shall mean any suit, action, or other proceedings instituted in the said Court in its jurisdiction under the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act.

"Affidavit" shall, in addition to its ordinary meaning, include a statement in writing on solemn affirmation wherever by law a person may make a solemn affirmation instead of an oath

2. These rules shall, if previously approved by His Majesty in Council, come into operation on a day to be fixed by the Court and shall apply to all suits instituted on and after that day.

3. A suit shall be instituted by a plaint drawn up, subscribed and verified according to the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, save that if the suit is in rem the defendants may (subject to such variation as the circumstances may require) be described as "the owners and parties interested in" the vessel or other property proceeded against instead of by name.

4. In suits in rem a warrant for the arrest of property may be issued at the instance either of the plaintiff or of the defendant at any time after the suit has been instituted, but no warrant of arrest shall be issued until an affidavit by the party or his agent has been filed, and the following provisions complied with :—

(b) In a suit of wages or of possession, the affidavit shall state the national character of the vessel proceeded against, and if against a foreign vessel, that notice of the institution of the suit has been given to the Consul of the State to which the vessel belongs, if there be one resident in Madras, and a copy of the notice shall be annexed to the affidavit.

(c) In a suit of bottomry the bottomry bond, and if in a foreign language also a notorial translation thereof, shall be produced for the inspection

(d) In a suit of distribution of Salvage the affidavit shall state the amount of Salvage money awarded or agreed to be accepted, and the name, address and description of the party holding the same

5. The Court or a Judge may in any case, if they or he think fit, allow the warrant to issue, although the affidavit in rule 4 mentioned may not contain all the required particulars, and in a suit of wages the Court or Judge may also waive the service of the notice, and in a suit of bottomry the production of the bond

6. In suits in rem no service of writ or warrant shall be required when the attorney of the defendant waives service and undertakes in writing to appear and to give security or to pay money into Court in lieu of security.

7. An attorney not entering appearance or giving security or paying money into Court in lieu of security in a suit in rem in pursuance of his written undertaking so to do shall be liable to attachment.

8. Every writ, warrant and process shall be served by the Sheriff or his bailiff. Every warrant shall be returned to the Registry within six days from the date thereof.

9. In suits in rem service of summons or warrant against ship, freight or cargo on board is to be effected by nailing or affixing the original writ or warrant for a short time on the main mast or on the single mast of the vessel and by taking off the process leaving a true copy of it nailed or affixed in its place.

10. If the cargo has been landed or transhipped, service of the writ or warrant to arrest the cargo and freight shall be effected by placing the writ of summons or warrant for a short time on the cargo and by, on taking off the process, leaving a true copy upon it.

11. If the cargo be in the custody of a person who will not permit access to it, service of the writ or warrant may be made upon the custodian.

12. In a suit in rem any person not named in the writ may intervene and appear on filing an affidavit showing that he is interested in the property under arrest or in the fund in the Registry.

13. After the expiration of 12 days from the return of a warrant if no appearance shall have been entered in the suit, the attorney for the plaintiff may cause the suit to be set down for hearing.

14. If when the suit comes before the Court, the Judge is satisfied that the plaintiff's claim is well founded, he may pronounce for the claim and may order the property to be sold with or without previous notice and the proceeds paid into the Registry or may make such order in the premises as he shall think just.

15. An attorney desiring to enter an appearance in any suit, shall file in the Registry a praecipe, a copy of which shall have been previously served on the adverse attorney.

16. The praecipe shall contain the name of the attorney and an address for service in Madras at which it shall be sufficient to leave all instruments and documents in the suit.

17. Where security is to be given in the Registry, it shall be given according to the rules and practice of the Court as to security in the case of an attachment before judgment in an ordinary Civil suit.

18. Property arrested by warrant shall only be released under the authority of an instrument issued by the Registrar, to be called a "release."

19. An attorney at whose instance any property has been arrested may, before an appearance has been entered, obtain the release thereof by filing a praecipe to withdraw the warrant.

20. An attorney may obtain the release of any property by paying into the Registry the sum in which the suit has been instituted.

21. Cargo arrested for the freight only may be released by an order of a Judge in Chambers upon proof by affidavit of the value of the freight and by paying the amount of the freight into the Registry.

22. In a suit of salvage the value of the property under arrest shall be agreed to or proved by affidavit to the satisfaction of a Judge in Chambers before the property is released.

23. Where security shall have been given in the sum in which the suit has been instituted, or such sum shall have been paid into the Registry, and if the suit be one of salvage the value of the property arrested shall have been proved to the satisfaction of a Judge in Chambers, an attorney shall be entitled to a release for the same, unless there be a Caveat against the release thereof.

24. The release, when obtained, shall be left with a praecipe in the office of the Sheriff by the attorney taking out the same, who shall also at the same time pay all costs, charges and expenses attending the care and custody of the property whilst under arrest, and the Sheriff shall thereupon release the property.

25. An attorney in a suit desiring to prevent the release of any property under arrest, shall file in the Registry a praecipe, and thereupon a Caveat against the release of the property shall be entered in the Register of Admiralty suits

26. A party delaying the release of any property by the entry of a Caveat shall be liable to be condemned in costs and damages, unless he shall show, to the satisfaction of the Court or a Judge, good and sufficient reason for having so done.

27. The party desiring to prevent the arrest of any property may cause a Caveat against the issue of a warrant for the arrest thereof to be entered in the Registry.

28. For this purpose he shall cause to be filed in the Registry a notice, signed by himself or his attorney, undertaking to enter an appearance in any suit that may be instituted against the said property, and to give security in such suit in a sum not exceeding an amount to be stated in the notice, or to pay such sum into the Registry, and a Caveat against the issue of a warrant for the arrest of the property shall thereupon be entered in the Register of Admiralty suits.

29. Before issuing a warrant for the arrest of the property, the Registrar shall ascertain whether or not any Caveat has been entered against the issue of a warrant for the arrest thereof.

30. An attorney instituting a suit against any property in respect of which a Caveat has been entered in the Register of Admiralty suits shall forthwith serve a copy of the plaint upon the party on whose behalf the Caveat has been entered or upon his attorney.

31. Within three days from the service of a copy of the plaint the party on whose behalf the Caveat has been entered shall, if the sum in which the suit has been instituted does not exceed the amount for which he has undertaken, give security in such sum or pay the same into the Registry, or if it exceeds that amount give security in the sum in which the suit has been instituted or pay the same into the Registry.

32. After the expiration of twelve days from the service of a copy of the plaint, if the party on whose behalf of the Caveat has been entered shall not have given security in such sum, or paid the same into the Registry, the plaintiff's attorney may proceed with the suit by default and have it heard: Provided that the Court may, on good cause shown and on such terms as to payment of costs as it may impose, extend the time for giving security or paying the money into the Registry.

33. If when the suit comes before the Court it is satisfied that the claim is well founded, it may pronounce for the amount which appears to be due, and may enforce the payment thereof by order and attachment against the party on whose behalf the Caveat has been entered, and by the arrest of the property if it then be or thereafter come within the jurisdiction of the Court.

34. The preceding rules shall not prevent an attorney from taking out a warrant for the arrest of any property, notwithstanding the entry of Caveat in the Register of Admiralty suits, but the party at whose instance any property in respect of which a Caveat is entered shall be arrested, shall be liable to be condemned in costs and damages, unless he shall show, to the satisfaction of the Court, good and sufficient reason for having so done.

37. Any person interested in the proceeds, may be heard before the Taxing Officer on the taxation of the account of expenses and an objection to the taxation shall be heard in the same manner as an objection to the taxation of an attorney's bill of costs.

57. The Judge shall be at liberty to receive, call for and act upon, such evidence, documentary or otherwise, whether legally admissible or not, as he may think fit.

58. If in any suit the sum awarded, or for which judgment is given, exceeds the sum, if any, tendered, the Judge may nevertheless exercise his discretion as to how and by whom the costs shall be borne.

With the approval of His Excellency the Governor in Council the Board of Revenue resolves to notify for the information of the public that the undermentioned draft rules have been framed under section 32 of Madras Act II of 1923 and are proposed to be introduced in the Kalahasti, Karvetnagar and Venkatagiri estates in lieu of those now in force, that they will be taken up for consideration on or after 10th January 1929 and that all suggestions or objections relating to them should be submitted so as to reach the Board of Revenue before that date.

DRAFT RULES.

Division, grouping and amalgamation of villages and appointment of officers

1. When the herigal a village is less than Rs. 2,000 the District Collector shall determine what office (headman's or karnam's) should be allowed to it under section 7 of Act II of 1894 (Madras) and in doing so, consider the relative capacity of the actual incumbents to discharge the duties of headman, karnam and munsif. The incumbent of the office allowed shall perform the duties attached to these three offices. The other office or offices shall be abolished. An exception to this rule may be made where the population is 2,500 and above or where the size or other circumstances of a village justify the entertainment of both headman and karnam. If there were more offices than one of any one class in the village, or corresponding villages, before revision, as in cases governed by section 15 (1) or 15 (2) the District Collector should first pass an order under section 7, also taking into consideration the claims of the members of the families of the existing village officers in cases falling under section 15 (1) and the proprietor should then select a person from among the incumbents of the existing offices of the same class as that constituted [15 (1)] or retained [15 (2)] or from among them and their families according as the case may fall under section 15 (2) or section 15 (1).

2. In submitting for the orders of the Board proposals for the revision of village offices under sections 5 and 7 of the Act, Collectors will as far as practicable be guided by the following rules:—

(i) Clubbing of adjoining villages shall ordinarily be resorted to for purposes of revision of village establishments when the distance between the village sites does not exceed a mile and a half, and the joint revenue of the united villages does not exceed Rs. 2,000. Provided that, if there are outlying hamlets of importance which would be more than one and a half miles from the new head village, the clubbing shall not ordinarily be carried out.

(ii) Uninhabited villages and those in which the lands are so intermingled that the boundaries cannot well be separated may be grouped, though the distance limit is exceeded. If clubbing is desirable, the fact that the joint revenue of the clubbed villages will exceed Rs. 2,000 is not to prevent amalgamation.

(iii) Save as provided in rule 1, each new village shall have at least a karnam, a headman and a talayari; but if the importance of any of the minor villages in the group demands it, a separate talayari to reside and keep watch in each minor village may be appointed.

(iv) The scale of establishment to be recommended [subject to the provisions of rule 1 above and to clause (v) below] should be as follows, in so far as it may be practicable to adopt it:—

Grades of heris including water-rate or quit-rent payable to Government.

Rs. 1,500 and below—One karnam or headman on Rs. 4.

Over Rs. 1,500 and under Rs. 2,000—One karnam or headman on Rs. 5.

NOTE.—The higher rate of pay is admissible where the population exceeds 1,000 although the heris may not exceed Rs. 1,500.

(2) An assistant karnam and munsiff may, if necessary, be allowed if the heris exceeds Rs. 9,000 and if it is inadvisable to subdivide the village. The pay of the assistant karnam and munsiff will be Rs. 5 and Rs. 4 respectively if the heris is less than Rs. 12,000 and Rs. 6 and Rs. 5 if it is Rs. 12,000 or more.

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to alter the order in which certain heirs of a deceased Hindu dying intestate are entitled to succeed to his estate, as passed by the Legislative Assembly, was presented to the Council of State on the 21st September 1928:—

We, the undersigned Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to alter the order in which certain heirs of a deceased Hindu dying intestate are entitled to succeed to his estate as passed by the Legislative Assembly was referred, have considered the Bill and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

2. We have amended sub-clause (b) of clause 1 so as to give more correct expression to the intention, namely, that the Bill should extend to the whole of British India but apply only to persons governed by the Mitakshara Law. We have omitted the words "whether as a paramount authority or not" which appear to us to be misleading. We are also of opinion that it is unnecessary either to assign retrospective effect to the provisions of the Bill or to defer the coming into operation thereof, and we have, therefore, omitted the reference to the date on which the succession opens.

3. We have omitted clause 2. The definition of "Hindu" adds nothing to sub-clause (c) of clause 1 as amended by us, while, consequentially on the omission of this definition, we have also inserted the word "male" in the title and preamble. The expression "order of succession" occurs only in clause 3 (re-numbered by us as clause 2). We are of opinion that its meaning is self-evident and that no definition is required. We have transferred the substance of the definition of "son" to the proviso annexed by us to clause 3 (re-numbered by us as clause 2). We have, however, made an amendment of substance in this connection by confining the limitation on the right of a son adopted to a sister's husband to rank as a sister's son to the requirement that the adoption must be effected during the sister's lifetime. We consider that the original requirement of consent by the sister would inevitably have opened the way to a mass of conflicting evidence regarding the grant or otherwise of that consent.

4. We have discussed at length the expediency of inserting "a son's wife" at the head of the order of succession set forth in clause 3 (re-numbered by us as clause 2). Being equally divided on the point, we have decided not to make the insertion

5. We are agreed that it is necessary to retain the substance of sub clause (e) of clause 4 (re-numbered as clause 3), but we have made a drafting amendment therein.

6. The Bill was published in the Gazette of India, dated the 31st March, 1928.

7. We think that the Bill has not been so altered as to require republication, and we recommend that it be passed as now amended.

MINUTES OF DISSENT.

As the President has ruled that the Bill cannot be circulated at this stage I would not raise the general question now. But when the Legislature is introducing changes in the order of succession, in my opinion, the claims at least of the son's widow and father's sister should be considered now. I do not also think that the new proviso to clause 2 is sufficiently clear; the amendment of which I had given notice was more comprehensive.

RAMA PRASAD MOOKERJEE.
ANUGRAH NARAYAN SINHA.

As the President has ruled that the Bill cannot be circulated at this stage, I would not raise the general question now. But when the Legislature is introducing important changes, the Bill needs re-circulation

RAM SARAN DAS.

I am of opinion that the list of female heirs embodied in clause 2 is very incomplete. Legislation to change the order of succession which is long established by texts and judicial decisions, should not be piecemeal and in instalments. Reformers who introduced a Bill of this character should have taken courage in both hands and asked for the removal of the disqualification to inherit by reason of sex only in respect of all the female relations whom they desire to bring in before the male agnates next after the father's father. To resort frequently to the Legislature for the purpose and to interpose new heirs in the order of succession by dislocating it as often as the claims of particular female relations commend themselves to their notions of equity is opposed to sound principles of legislation and should, in my opinion, be discouraged by the Legislature. In this view I wish to add at least one female relation, the son's widow, to clause 2 for three reasons. Firstly, I wish to give her a place higher than the four mentioned in clause 2, and therefore her case stands on a different footing from those who come after the four specified in the clause. Future legislation to put her above those specified in clause 2 and thus supersede those whose claims are recognized by this Bill will be open to more serious objection than legislation to add others to the list so as to rank below those dealt with by this Bill. Secondly, the claims of the son's widow to occupy a higher rank than those mentioned in the Bill is recognized not only by text written like Balambhatta (see Sarvadhikari's Law of Inheritance, page 379) but also by Hindu sentiment generally. The objection that she is a stranger to the family while those specified in clause 2 are blood relations cannot stand examination for a minute. Thirdly, when the Bill of the late Mr. Sesha giri Ayyar was circulated for opinion in 1923, the exclusion of son's widow was favoured by some whose opinions I greatly value. The question is therefore not an entirely new one. Therefore I am in favour of passing the Bill as amended by the Select Committee with the addition of the son's widow at the commencement of clause 2.

[AS AMENDED BY THE SELECT COMMITTEE]

[Words printed in italics indicate the amendments suggested by the Committee]

A Bill to alter the order in which certain heirs of a deceased Hindu male dying intestate are entitled to succeed to his estate.

WHEREAS it is expedient to alter the order in which certain heirs of a deceased Hindu male dying intestate are entitled to succeed to his estate; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, extent and application.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Hindu Law of Inheritance (Amendment) Act, 192 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, including British Baluchistan and the Santhal Parganas, but it applies only to persons who, but for the passing of this Act, would have been subject to the law of Mitakshara in respect of the provisions herein enacted, and it applies to such persons in respect only of the property of males not held in coparcenary and not disposed of by will.

Order of succession to certain heirs.

2. A son's daughter, daughter's daughter, sister and sister's son shall, in the order so specified, be entitled to rank in the order of succession next after a father's father and before a father's brother:

Provided that a sister's son shall not include a son adopted after the sister's death.

Saving.

3. Nothing in this Act shall—

(a) affect any special family or local custom having the force of Law, or

(b) vest in a son's daughter, daughter's daughter or sister an estate larger than, or different in kind from, that possessed, according to the Mitakshara law of inheritance as administered in the territories to which this Act extends, by a female in property inherited by her from a male, or

(c) enable more than one person to succeed by inheritance to the estate of a deceased Hindu male which by a customary or other rule of succession descends to a single heir.
